SETTLEMENT PATTERNS FOR COLONIAL NEW JERSEY

Areas of Population MIGRATION
- BRITISH
- GERMAN
- DUTCH
- QUAKER
- IRISH/SCOT
- SLAVES

Few colonists ventured into this area because of the dense pine forest which wouldn't be easily cleared for farming and was far from the harbor.

Mountains blocked European settlers due to poor soils for farming.

Dutch were only settlers to bring slaves.

Raritan valley most culturally heterogeneous area in NJ.

Few colonists ventured into this area because of the dense pine forest which wouldn't be easily cleared for farming and was far from the harbor.

European colonists first migrated to large harbor and coastal areas.

Germans migrated to NJ from Pennsylvania across the Delaware River.

Mountains blocked European settlers due to poor soils for farming.

Dutch were only settlers to bring slaves.

Raritan valley most culturally heterogeneous area in NJ.

Few colonists ventured into this area because of the dense pine forest which wouldn't be easily cleared for farming and was far from the harbor.

European colonists first migrated to large harbor and coastal areas.

Germans migrated to NJ from Pennsylvania across the Delaware River.

Mountains blocked European settlers due to poor soils for farming.

Dutch were only settlers to bring slaves.

Raritan valley most culturally heterogeneous area in NJ.