The central map shows asthma prevalence rates for the entire Medicaid population, while the rings depict the separate rates for the African American and white Medicaid populations.